PAD London Prize

The 2024 PAD London Prizes have been awarded. Laffanour Galerie Downtown received the Booth Prize. The Contemporary Design Prize went to the work of New York-based artist Peter Schlesinger, the focal point of a presentation by London gallery Tristan Hoare, which is debuting at this year's fair. The Historical Design Prize was awarded to a plaster medallion with a decor of a woman and two birds by Alberto Giacometti, a unique piece (circa 1938) presented by the Galerie Jacques Lacoste.
